

Stull and Lee Incorporated architecture · planning

COLUMBIA CROSSING DORCHESTER, MASSACHUSETTS

Columbia Crossing is a proposal for a 62 unit mixed-use, mixed-income housing development with affordable artist's housing, shared studio and meeting spaces, civic space, galleries and performing arts venues. The building also includes below-market rate space available for area small businesses and nonpro it organizations.

This project is a key component in a city of Boston initiative to create an Arts & Innovation District in the Upham's Corner Neighborhood.

